

GROW WITH US

exciting international opportunities await

A PROUD HISTORY, FULL OF EXCELLENCE

When Geraldo Dannemann arrived in the small port town of São Félix in Bahia in 1872, he had a simple but grand goal: to make the finest handmade cigars in the world from the finest tobaccos in the region. Together with local rollers and craftsmen, he began to build his cigar manufactory, which - over a century later - is still in operation today.

What started modestly is now one of the most important tobacco companies in the world. DANNEMANN is internationally active, owning plantations in South America & Asia and traditional manufacturing facilities all over the world. Today, our cigarillos and cigars are available in over 60 countries. The extensive and diverse portfolio includes brands such as MOODS, Al Capone and DANNEMANN. Our group is still privately owned today and continues to represent the visionary pioneering spirit of its founder.

Do you love tobacco and would you like to take the opportunity to pursue your further career in this area of expertise? Are you at the beginning of your career looking for a job in which you not only implement but also active participate?

If so, then we are looking for you (M/F) at our location in Burg, Switzerland as a
